A Note from Roger Green

Founder and Director. The New York School of Feng Shui

To work together as people in a meaningful way necessitates a vision of individual, communal, societal and global harmony. This vision is of a world sustained by sensitivity and intelligence; of courtesy and respect for all beings; of a dream for peace on earth and of hearts filled with a love that is its own eternity. Our courses are designed to inspire and empower the individual in society, as a response to the challenge of life on all levels.

We aim to trace the common thread, which unites all things.

Taoism is a total philosophy. The fundamental precepts of Yin and Yang (change and balance) describe how things function and relate to each other. This Universal premise when applied to our daily lives will naturally lead to a healthier and happier existence.

Here are the principles that are the foundation of our educational programs. I hope you can take a few minutes to review them as we begin another year together

- To encourage collaborative learning through the exploration of comprehensive & ancient cosmological paradigms
- To establish a theoretical & practical foundation for the application of the oriental, natural medicine & creative healing arts

- To integrate a holistic approach to health, balance, healing & living design

To develop an understanding of self-awareness through the application of:

- * diet, food energetics & therapy;
- * herbalism;
- * exercise;
- * meditation
- * astrology
- energetics
- * feng shui & the environment
- * sacred geometry & alchemy
- * ecological understandings
- * ethical business trainings and developing presentation skills

Education is a process of growth and healing is the enfoldment of that story. These programs are designed to educate, entertain and empower. Using innovative, challenging and advanced learning strategies, participants will explore a brand new world; equipped with the skills to develop complete realization.

Ultimately, the purpose of this program is to develop practitioners and future teachers who provide leadership in the face of challenges to individual, social and planetary health. The development of our consciousness is one of the highest goals of our life. These courses will open the doors to wisdom, healing and universal spirit. It will show you the various influences on our individual and collective lives and how to make positive change. ...it is a path that awakens ourselves to the call of our true potential

“Feng Shui is about harnessing chi, the life-force energy that ripples water, creates mountains and propels us along our life pathway. With an understanding of Feng Shui comes the recognition of the vital connection between person and place, health, success and happiness.”

Feng Shui Practitioners Certificate Course

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS, TOPICS, OUTLINES AND OBJECTIVES

Getting Started with Feng Shui

Feng Shui is often called "The Key to Good Fortune". The Feng Shui journey captures a deeply poetical view of life's underlying influences. It is a language of universal cosmology and change that we will explore on all levels; physical, emotional, spiritual and universal.

Learn the how and why of "Energy Design" techniques associated with Feng Shui masters for thousands of years and unify the intuitive thinking processes of Feng Shui with a more analytical approach, blending east and west, right and left hemispheres of awareness....

This module will present the fundamental definitions and principles of Feng Shui. You will learn how Feng Shui applies to your life and how you can achieve results in your living and business environments.

Most modern design lacks the implementation of Energy flow- and energy awareness. You have most likely heard of the concept "sick building syndrome". Some houses just don't feel right. Some businesses do badly for no apparent reason. Find out what the major contributing factors to these situations are.

In the East, no major decision for business design or location is made until it is thoroughly investigated by a Feng Shui expert.

This module consists of an exploration of the origins and history of Feng Shui, the different schools of Feng Shui, the development of Feng Shui's most powerful tools and an explanation of the underlying principles that allow Feng Shui to work. This includes a strong emphasis on Form School, one of the 2 original schools of Feng Shui.

You will gain an understanding of the Taoist (Daoist) Art of Design and its part in environmental awareness and Solar Architecture. Unravel the complexities of the yin-yang principle and 5 elements theory and learn how to utilize them in design to enrich life and create the best energetic qualities for health and prosperity.

From the Ba Gua to Flying Star Methods

The universe and all it contains is essentially energy in a continual state of transformation. The ancient Taoist sages of the East observed powerful insights into the inner working of the universe, and devised methods to trace the everlasting process of change- the rhythm of the order of the universe.

Here (Module 2) we continue our journey with an introduction to Compass School Feng Shui (the second of the original 2 schools of Feng Shui). Using the Western Lo pan developed by Roger Green, as a reference tool, you will be led through an exploration of all that is possible when the 8 compass directions are combined with the dynamics of yin/yang and the 5 elements theory.

With the introduction of the eight directions we follow the evolution of the "Later Heaven Trigrams" to construct the "Bagua", an octagonal mandala with infinite uses in Feng Shui. We examine the Lo Shu, or the magic square of Feng Shui, as it leads to the Ming Gua and Ba Zhai methods, the core of "Eight Houses" Feng Shui.

Bagua, Ming Gua and Bazhai Methods

Using these methods you will learn how to draw an energy diagram that illustrates the 4 auspicious and 4 less auspicious directions for the individual (Ming Gua) and for the structure (Ba Zhai).

Once you have mastered these two powerful techniques you will be able to make informed and relevant choices for optimal design, which relate equally to the structure and the people that inhabit it. These techniques influence the selection of:

The Flying Star Techniques

The Universe is ever changing and natural influences evolve with the passage of time. Flying Star Feng Shui incorporates the elements of time and space. Discover how to trace the pattern of change through the 20-year periods called "ages". Learn how to access the fortune of a dwelling. With practice, one can become skilled at how to unblock energies that affect the potential of prosperity and health in a dwelling.

The Lo pan Compass is the essential tool in Classical Feng Shui. Its many rings reveal vital information in assessing a dwelling or building site and contain a large body of knowledge that encompasses classical Chinese philosophy, numerology and cosmology. The Lo pan reveals the different energies, which affect the site. With this knowledge, you can generate an in depth analysis of a home or business.

The Four pillars Astrology and Cosmology

Discover the richness of eastern philosophy and learn how to apply its principles to health, design, prosperity and spiritual transformation. The 4 Pillars Astrology is based on Taoist Metaphysics and Cosmology, and is used extensively by Feng Shui experts in China, Hong Kong and Taiwan.

This sophisticated form of astrology can be used with a client to determine auspicious timing, relationship compatibility, lucky colors and personalized feng shui.

The Four Pillars is an ancient system that reveals aspects of destiny, constitutional dynamics, and beneficial elements. It's as useful for deriving relevant personal information about Feng Shui clients such as aspects of their character or family. Armed with superior knowledge of their clients and their needs, the practitioner can optimize the relevance and results of the consultation.

Four pillars is an ancient system of constructing a Horoscope based on the "Heavenly Stems" and "Earthly Branches" of the hour, day, month and year of birth. Interpretation is the result of examining the manner in which the elemental and animal archetypes contained in the charts interact with aspects within the chart as well as conditions in the world.

Let Roger take you on a fascinating 4 Pillar journey in time and space, yin-yang, spirals and elements to the very core of the formation of your constitution.

Four Pillars' greatest strength for Feng Shui is its ability to accurately determine the Element make-up of the subject. Once the self-element is determined beneficial elements can be recognized and the most appropriate Feng Shui adjustments and design choices can be made.

Included with this course is an extensive step-by-step manual for calculating and interpreting Four Pillars as well as Roger's simplified technique for creating Four Pillars and Luck Pillars charts. (Not available anywhere else)

In this Module you will learn to:

- Calculate the Natal Four Pillars chart
- Calculate the Ten Year Luck cycles chart
- Calculate annual Pillars charts
- Calculate daily pillars charts
- Calculate charts for Northern and Southern Hemispheres
- Understand the significance of Earthly Branches and Heavenly Stems
- Analyze Four Pillars charts to determine strengths and weaknesses
- Understand which animal archetypes interact supportively
- Understand which animal archetype combinations should be avoided
- Understand special charts and their implications

Four Pillars knowledge will enable you to:

- Determine the quality of Chi at the moments of birth; tendencies that we maintain through our life
- Determine tendencies in past, present, and future decades
- Determine tendencies for specific years
- Determine tendencies for specific days
- Determine beneficial and harmful elements for Feng Shui
- Understand the element balance in an individual's natal chart
- Determine the best choices for romance and Marriage
- Determine the greatest chances for prosperity
- Understand how to improve power in your life
- Understand how to increase creativity
- Understand special challenges in your life
- How to best moderate your energy
- Determine the best colors and design configuration for an individual
- Discover relevant health information
- Understand the implications of certain element and animal combinations
- Determine character, education, intelligence, talent
- Determine key information about family relationships
- Determine auspicious and inauspicious timing for specific activities

Roger Green is a pioneer of Four Pillars in Western culture, having introduced these methods for the first time to thousands of students in Europe, UK, USA and Australia. He created the first effective protocols for 100% correct chart calculations, stressing the importance of determining correct local solar time and by developing the appropriate adaptation for calculating Southern Hemisphere charts. This has never been accomplished before in history.

"With the logic of a master mathematician and the inspiration of a spiritual teacher, Roger takes you on a thrilling ride from this humble earth into the cosmological forces and patterns governing our lives. His workshops provide not only tools for living in the here and now but also an understanding of the place of humanity in the universe. The end result is a healing of the rift existing in our culture between the material and the metaphysical."
~Jessica Levine, USA

Practical Feng Shui Projects and Site Consults

Simple Steps to Harmony with the Lessons of Wind and Water.

Those who gain the most from life are those who gain the most from their inner selves. To help attain this potential, Feng Shui allows us to create environments that flow naturally, allowing the release of blockages. Feng Shui is about harnessing 'chi', the life force that ripples water, creates mountains and propels us along our path.

Discover how the Form school of Feng Shui can help you recognize the landscapes and buildings, which provide support for the residents of homes and office buildings. Find out how to balance negative forces that can deplete prosperity, health and well being. Combine form school principles with classical compass methods and apply them in a practical setting for the benefit of your clients and yourself. Gain practical experience and apply all that you have learned in the first 2 modules holistically. Build confidence in your practice by becoming assured that you are well trained before practicing on with clients.

The first 3 days of this module are dedicated to practical site visits. Students will have the opportunity to experience the components of actual consultations in a variety of settings; all under the expert supervision of NYSFS. These projects will be further expanded later in our Ecological Living Designs modules. You will finish our training program with a beautifully presented Feng Shui and Eco Design presentation, refined and well crafted, artistically prepared, graphically correct, and ready to be used on your website, client portfolio and PowerPoint presentation.

The final day is dedicated to the review of the course work to date. There is a take-home revision exam that will be reviewed on day 4. Students will also have the opportunity to present their Feng Shui Consultation Project to the class for review. Completing the revision exam and the project are required for certification.

Doing Consultations

Our goal at NYSFS is to ensure that our students are confident and adept in making professional feng shui consultations. After the first two modules, students will perform one consultation, and after acquiring more skill and confidence, students will be required to do two or three after each of the remaining modules.

Sustainable Living Environments

With Janus Welton

Heal the Earth one room, one place one person at a time! In Sustainable Living Environments, you will learn how to avoid and transform environments that are debilitating and destructive and explore a range of tangible and subtle elements, which positively impact the environments that support all of life.

The nature of reality is guided by the choices we make. In no other practice is it more important to choose wisely and consciously than in our building practices and materials. Building in a sustainable manner is imperative for global survival and the preservation of humanity.

Explore exciting possibilities for creating spaces following Ecological and Sustainable Design principles. Become familiar with the process of designing earth friendly structures that support life and bring joy to those that inhabit them.

The Healthy Dwelling and Eco-Design Principles

Air Quality

Water Quality

Passive Solar Design

Green Sustainable Design

Ecology

Electromagnetic Fields

In Sustainable Living Designs you will develop a healthy-living toolkit:

- What does it mean to create a "healthy" dwelling?
- The principles of the "Breathable House"
- How to identify the major sources of indoor air, water and electromagnetic pollution
- Discover safe alternative products
- How to create a life-renewing bedroom and kitchen
- How to design with nature as our role model.
- A total approach to a healthy living environment with outstanding innovation through responsible choice.
- Consider individual occupants, fellow humans and the environment as a whole.

Design for Ecological Living
Permaculture and the Sacred Geometry Patterns of Natures with Patricia Michael

This course with Patricia Michael will involve an intimate experience of space using our senses as we begin to read the sacred book of nature.

Learn how to truly use all your senses, including intuition of the heart, mind and personal experience to awaken awareness and connection to a building site. Engage in an embodied exploration of space with the tools of digital photography, colors, symbols and words to record our impressions of a potential site. Practice using these principles to broaden the thought processes concerning our bodies and our environment. Design for safety, health, comfort, beauty and success.

As humans, the body is our first experience of architecture. Study examples of architecture designed to support the development of the human spirit.

Permaculture is a philosophy that works with the natural rhythms and patterns of nature to consciously create designs that nurture people, the Earth and all its inhabitants. Permaculture mimics the patterns and relationships found in nature to create inspiring spaces and harmoniously integrates landscape, shelter and people sustainably. It is a practical philosophy that works on all scales and can be applied in many applications; from a city balcony, to a suburban block, to a farm deep in the countryside.

Natural Remodeling

Explore natural material alternatives that are fundamental to a healthy living environment.

The Soul of the Dwelling Delve deeper into the soul of the site, the dwelling, the landscape and the designer. Learn to attune yourself to work harmoniously with the unseen elements of the dwelling, landscape and yourself as designer.

Business and Presentation Skills for the Feng Shui Practitioner

Patricia, one of our country's most successful Eco-Designers has an MFA in Art and over twenty years of experience delivering valuable guidance to her design clients while teaching graphic design, architecture, and art at the university level. Join us, and learn consultation and presentation methods for the promotion and delivery of services, as well as techniques to attract and sustain successful client relationships.

Rituals of Harmonization
Personal Clearing
Space and Clutter Clearing

CLEAR HOME, CLEAR HEART
A course led by JEAN HANER

Personal Clearing

Learn to clear yourself and the people you love.

Some people call it healing. Others say it's the power of love. Whatever you call it, clearing brings you to a place where you are no longer stressed by the things that have always stressed you.

You can learn to clear yourself, and you can clear others. Clearing can be learned easily, and can be used in all aspects of your personal and professional life.

Although it seems simple, this gentle, non-intrusive work can actually change your life forever. Because as you do this work, you clear your own personal patterns, open your heart more and more, and become better able to hold a higher 'frequency' for yourself and others.

- Gain an easy way to feel instantly lighter, calmer, less stressed overall.
- Lose emotional charge around your experiences with people in your life, past or present.
- Open new possibilities for moving beyond your stuck places in life, such as issues with weight, healing relationships, difficult emotional patterns that seem to resistant to change.
- Learn easy and practical techniques to develop and deepen your intuitive skills.
- Feel more connected with your sacred sense of purpose.
- Create space for joy and open-heartedness in every aspect of life.
- Your results continue to expand and grow after the workshop is over.

Space and Clutter Clearing

Learn this pure, elegant work and refined it to its essence - the power of the compassionate heart. Transform the spaces where you live and work and bring Magic and 'pure light' back into your life.

Any kind of clutter acts as an obstacle to the flow of energy or chi around a space. This in turn creates stuck energy and/or a lack of clarity in the lives of the occupants. Fundamentally, Clutter Clearing is about letting go. Let your unloved or unused items go and allow the chi to flow! It involves letting go of the physical, emotional, mental and spiritual attachments that inhibit us from having a life free from fears and negative emotions.

We will learn the reasons why energy gets stuck in the first place and what you can do to move that energy.

We live in a vibrational world - everything that exists around us consists of vibrating energy. This course will offer an understanding of the different planes of existence and the intersection of the seen and unseen worlds. All cultures have some form of Space clearing or "Space Healing" rituals that bring in positive qualities into the space for its occupants. The idea of filling a space with pure, healthy energy is not new. Spiritual paths including Tibetan Buddhism, Christianity, Native American traditions, and Taoism have always placed a high priority on creating a clear and harmonized atmosphere in our homes and workplaces.

There is nothing like a living space that feels just right. We may all have very different tastes in decoration and furniture style but when it comes down to the feel of a place we would probably all agree that we don't want to live in a space that makes us feel uncomfortable and ill at ease. What makes the energy in a living space uncomfortable? It is usually an accumulation of stagnant energies. These negative energies can accumulate in a number of ways because we are constantly creating energies around us with our thoughts, intentions, emotions and words

Space Clearing is the process to refine the subtle energies of your home or business. It is non-denominational and is not affiliated with any particular religion but belongs to all the ancient and traditional cultures, including the west, as well as new understanding from modern science. We all leave energetic impressions on our environments, both positive and negative and our environments make impressions on us. Space Clearing in your home or office removes residual unpleasant energies. You will learn to work with physical, emotional and spiritual energies of your space with love, joy and light.

In feng shui, it's important to consider these 'invisibles' when working with any space. You can move the bed or paint the wall, but if there is a disturbed emotional memory held in the environment, or the earth is stressed, the qi will not flow in a healthy way. When there is a clear, vibrant energy moving through your environment, you feel better, life goes more smoothly and joyfully, clutter disappears and doesn't tend to re-accumulate, and you feel nourished and supported by your space.

After a space clearing, people often feel lighter, happier, and more energized than they have in years, with new optimism and clarity. And frequently sudden and almost magical results show up in their lives, as the new energy in their space ripples out into the rest of their world!

We'll discuss the many different styles of space clearing, including using bells, scents, hand work, intention, and a variety of other tools, and also how to maintain lasting effects. We'll also cover the ethics associated with this work, and methods of grounding and keeping clear yourself, so you can be most effective for your clients, as well as creating a balanced life for yourself!

The result is a spacious new awareness in life and a growing ability to live with a truly fearless and open heart. • Learn to locate and clear areas holding stress in each room of a home or business, and in the land. • Release the energetic residue of previous occupants of a space. • Clear any 'stuckness' caused by lingering effects of past experiences and emotions held in an environment

- Release ghosts, suicides, and the memory of trauma
- Bring earth energy lines back into balance
- Work with the influence of electromagnetic fields and microwave radiation
- Discover any power spots in the space that are especially positive for the occupant.
- Learn how shifting the energy can help clutter disappear.
- Support greater health and improved vitality.
- More easily sell, move from an old home, or find a new one.
- Help others finally feel 'at home', a sense of belonging and joy in their space.
- Create new possibilities for change, growth and feeling more connected with a sacred sense of purpose.

The result is a spacious new awareness in life and a growing ability to live with a truly fearless and open heart.

About Jean Haner

Jean Haner is the founder of Clear Home, Clear Heart, and has worked in the field of subtle energy for 30 years. A natural intuitive empath, she is able to physically feel and work with the energy of an environment or a person. Jean received advanced training in space clearing techniques of many cultures, including Chinese, Balinese, Celtic and aboriginal, and over the years has refined clearing to a simple and elegant method that is grounded in love. She is well known as a warm and effective teacher, and her workshops are filled with practical, meaningful information that you can put to immediate use in your life.

Endorsements:

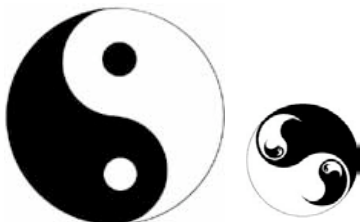

"This is the easiest way of working with energy I've ever discovered."

"Don't miss this extraordinary opportunity. I can clear myself, my family - this is such a gift."

"I feel so light, so able to let go of everything that used to block me. This is amazing work!"

"Jean is the one teacher I've found who helped me feel powerful, capable and confident. There is no ego, only a loving presence."

"My feng shui work is transformed, but my life is also changed forever. The simplicity of this work belies its depth, and Jean teaches it in a way that makes it so easy to learn and understand."

The Wisdom of Your Face

Learn Chinese Face Reading with Jean Haner

The ancient Chinese believed that your face reflects your true inner spirit, the blueprint of your original design. The wisdom written there explains why you think, feel, and behave as you do, and answers two of the most important questions you need to ask yourself in life: Who am I and what is my calling?

By discovering your unique inner design, you can become a fuller and more integrated expression of your authentic self, find the life path that brings you joy, relationships that nurture you, and most of all, gain a way to feel true compassion for yourself and everyone you encounter.

Please join us to learn the wisdom you can find in the curve of your cheek, the slant of your nose, even the style of your hair. This is a fun and fascinating experience but with profound implications for deep and effective personal change.

For You Personally:

- Refine your vision for your life
- Find loving friendships
- Be the best parent for your children
- Succeed in romantic relationships & on-line dating
- Feel happy and confident in your authentic self
- Understand why you may be attracting the same kinds of experiences in life and how to break those old patterns
- Deepen your relationship with your spouse or partner, or find someone who is a good 'fit' for you
- Improve parenting skills – see who your child truly is and how you can help them flourish
- Learn why family members interact as they do and how to free yourself from negative reactions
- Discover how to transform your personal challenges into strengths, and feel comfortable in your own skin

For You Professionally:

- Discover your true calling
- Revolutionize business relationships
- Reduce conflict among staff
- Help others achieve success
- Transform the way you do your work
- Gain people's genuine trust and confidence; turn clients into loyal allies
- Learn how to be a personal guide or coach for yourself and others
- Understand clients' and colleagues' personalities, communication styles and decision-making behavior
- Find easier ways for people to work together with less stress
- Discover the best way to do your work in the world

Saturday is a day full of information, including photos and stories, some humorous, some poignant, to help you clearly understand how the wisdom of your face can forever change how you live your life.

SUNDAY: Practicum - Now we can go for it! Get direct practice and experience with what you've learned, watch Jean do demonstrations, and learn the final pieces of the puzzle, with information that is not included in the book.

The Wisdom of Your Face gives you simple, elegant and practical information you can put to immediate use in life.

“By observing myself - I others and their diseases are revealed to me. By observing symptoms, one gathers knowledge about internal disturbances.”

-Nei Ching, Ancient Chinese Text of Internal Medicine.

Endorsements:

“In clear yet eloquent language, Jean Haner guides us into a world where the lines of a face are no longer viewed as aesthetic problems to be erased but rather as the sacred calligraphy of an evolving soul.

“This is the product not only of a keenly perceptive and dedicated mind but also a deeply compassionate heart. It is a treasure trove of practical information and guidance as well as poetry and magic that will be invaluable to anyone who is committed to helping themselves and others lead more authentic, meaningful and rewarding lives.” — Lorie Eve Dechar, author of “Five Spirits”

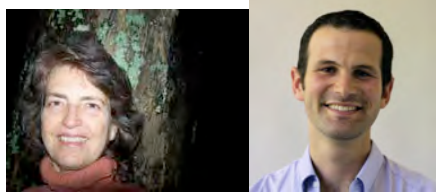

“I gained as much, or more, self-acceptance in your workshop as I’ve gained from two years of therapy in the past! The tangible results are darn good too.”
— Debra Alexander, Santa Cruz, CA

“Jean Haner transforms the way you look into the mirror - and into the eyes of another person.” — Terah Kathryn Collins, author of “The Western Guide to Feng Shui”

BIO

Jean Haner, the author of “The Wisdom of Your Face,” teaches and consults internationally about powerful techniques to “read” people’s inner natures. With her 25-year background in ancient Chinese principles of balance and health, Jean places an emphasis on providing compassionate and affirming ways for people to live according to their true nature.

Sacred Geometry
The Alchemy of Design and the TAO OF GEOMETRY
With Marnie Muller and Mark Hanf

Tao is most often translated as “way” or “path” and in this 4 day course our labyrinthine path leads us towards the center of Chinese Geometry. Deep within the ancient art and science of Geometry lies a beautiful and mysterious system of forms that has fascinated philosophers and sages from all spiritual traditions since antiquity. In this particular Foundation Course we invite participants to awaken their own deeper levels of perception and to access the golden key of Sacred Geometry to unlock secrets encoded in the sacred symbols of China. This multifaceted course integrates hands-on geometric drawing with dynamic multimedia presentations and invites students to explore the harmonic balance of Heaven and Earth, Form and Emptiness, Science and Spirituality, Mastery and Mystery, Yin and Yang.

Through this dynamic foundation course you will:

Develop a deeper understanding of the connection between Feng Shui principles and Sacred Geometry

Gain proficiency in the classical skills of architectural compass drawing through meditative geometric practices and individual instruction

Draw a series of traditional Chinese geometric patterns and designs to include in your own portfolio

Explore how these archetypal geometric patterns and designs can be effectively applied to one’s personal and professional life

In this course, the content focus is:

Decoding the hidden fractal and holographic geometries embedded in the Yin Yang and how they relate to modern science and principles of design

Exploring the secret of how the Yin Yang is a multidimensional template (or map) for understanding geomagnetism and other core elements of Feng Shui
 Discovering how the flow of chi integrally relates to the Yin Yang form through the principles of Sacred Geometry
 Investigating how the Yin Yang is intimately related to the resonant proportions and symmetries of human anatomy
 Exploring the mysteries of Squaring the Circle and the harmonics of balancing Heaven and Earth
 Learning advanced construction techniques of the Ba Gua and other classic geometric symbols of China with architectural compass and straight edge
 Developing a sensory, kinesthetic 3-D geometric experience of these primordial patterns and flow-forms
 Zooming in on the toroidal and vortex geometries of ancient Chinese imagery and exploring how they reveal the living geometries of Nature

Day I : Circle and Square

Just remain at the center of the circle
 And let all things take their course.
 -Lao Tzu

Our path begins with a multi-media glimpse of the rich culture of ancient China and its cosmology. With Heaven Above, Earth Below, the deep geometries of Nature and the Universe are discovered embedded in art, architecture, astronomy, sacred measure, navigation, alchemy, and symbolism.

Throughout this course we explore the traditions of Taoism, Buddhism, and Confucianism and how the relationship of Human to Cosmos was an elemental expression of the Chinese culture.

The primary tools of architectural compass and straight edge are at the heart of geometry. Throughout history, geometers have been initiated into the meditative art of geometric drawing as a spiritual practice and a practical skill. In this session we participate in this ancient tradition through drawing the archetypal forms of Circle and Square. We develop our confidence and skill level by progressing to more complex forms such as The Hexagonal Matrix, the Yin Yang and the Lo Shu Magic Square.

Day II The Octagon and Other Key Geometric Forms

The Tao gives birth to One.

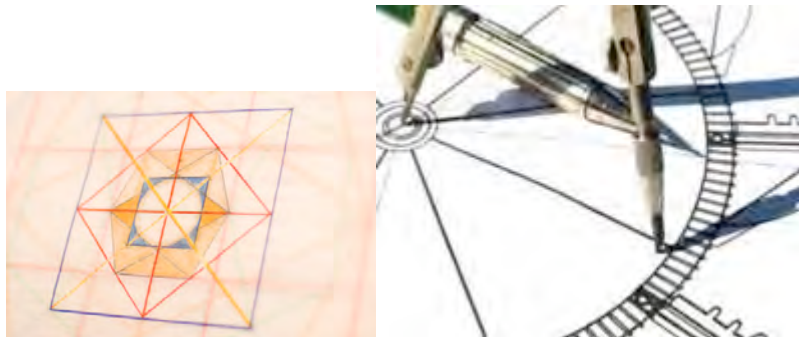

One gives birth to Two.

Two gives birth to Three.

Three gives birth to the Ten Thousand Things.

-Lao Tzu

This session begins with a comprehensive multimedia presentation on Sacred Number, the Lo Pan Compass, the Ba Gua, the I Ching, the Five Elements and other key geometric patterns in Chinese cosmology. We will explore the pentagon and the Five Elements as well as octagonal geometries and how they all arise from the Yin Yang. Using advanced compass skills we will construct the Ba Gua and other complex forms and explore how they are interrelated. We will examine the geometric aspects of the Lo Pan Compass as well as the Sacred Geometry of the seasons and cycles of time in Chinese Astronomy.

Day III : Yin Yang

Being and Non-Being create each other...

-Lao Tzu

The Tai Chi, known in the west as the Yin Yang, is a familiar symbol that embodies the philosophy of non-dualism or complementarity. Its key principles of polarity and harmony as well as cyclic and wave motion are reflected throughout the cosmos. We will explore this archetypal geometric form found throughout Chinese culture through a unique multi-media presentation and discussion.

By meditatively drawing variations of the Yin Yang with the geometer's tools we will explore the principles and pathways of Fractal, Toroidal, and Vortex Geometries and how they map the phenomena of Electromagnetism, Chi, Human Anatomy, and Primordial Chi Kung Geometric Movements.

Day IV : Squaring the Circle and Cubing the Sphere

The Great Square has no corners.

-Lao Tzu

One of the oldest puzzles in human history is how to construct a square and circle that have equal perimeter or area. This problem has fascinated mathematicians all over the world for centuries leading to the mystery of pi and representing something that appears logically impossible. Like a Zen koan, this level of paradox can invite the mind to transcend the rigidity of logic and arrive at a deeper level of meaning. With Heaven as Circle and Earth as Square, this ancient riddle expresses an underlying aspect of the whole of Chinese cosmology that points towards the relationship of Emptiness and Form; Spirit and Matter. Our multimedia presentation explores how this paradox is woven throughout Chinese art and architecture. In truest Taoist fashion, our final day brings us full circle back to where we began...in Mystery. How can our sacred geometer's tools resolve this ancient riddle? Using a variety of Advanced Geometric construction techniques, we will demonstrate that:

The Tao is filled with infinite possibilities.
-Lao Tzu

The Astrology of the I Ching

Learn how to construct your I Ching astrology Hexagrams based on the Four Pillars. (both northern and southern hemisphere-for the first time anywhere)

This workshop has a detailed workbook that displays the 21 steps and calculations required for the pre and later heaven hexagrams of your birth. The hexagrams represent the sum forces acting on the earth at any one moment. Through a series of time based calculations, predictions can be made providing valuable information from the I Ching for all those searching for the path to follow. It allows you to identify and pursue your life's goals. It makes predictions for every individual based on the theory that the earth is manifest from the Universal Creative order that is expressed in the progression and evolvement of the 64 hexagrams of the I Ching.

Once again Roger Green is pioneering a body of work that is little known in the West. Students of Feng Shui, Four Pillars and the I Ching will find this to be an illuminating module. It is the logical next step for anyone who has studied Four Pillars.

Testimonials from the longest established Classical Feng Shui curriculum...

This was the most comprehensive training a Feng Shui practitioner could get. Being part of the School of Feng Shui is an ongoing process of learning and achievement. We are prepared to offer clients a full spectrum of options when asked to enter their living or working space. I am grateful for the experience and encourage you to choose the same path.

-Barbara, Student 2003

" I'm studying Feng Shui with Roger Green from Australia. He's the best teacher of any subject that I've ever encountered! The amount of information that he brought into that short introduction to this work was incredible. But more importantly, he instills this incredible sense of joy, wholeness, hope and fun into life! He has a great Australian accent, has a wonderful sense of humor, and teaches ancient wisdom that we all recognize, but have forgotten."

-Nancy, CA Yoga School Manager

The School of Feng Shui is a gift to all who want to know the "real deal" about feng shui. No gimmicks here. This was a true educational experience. The importance of knowing why certain treatments and cures work is stressed. Roger Green is a master feng shui practitioner who generously shares his life experience and knowledge of this ancient Chinese art with his students with humor and with grace and ease. By the end of the course work I was confident that I had the tools and the knowledge necessary to be of service to people interested in "being feng shuied".

-Melissa Moorer Nobles

What an awaking seminar! It enlightens me deeply, giving me far more than I could imagine. The first module showed me that from the microcosm of human life, we learn the vast & profound realities of the macrocosm. Roger Green couldn't have been a better guide for exploring this integral & harmonious way through the natural principles of Feng Shui. Isn't that what we all are seeking in our turbulent society?

-Anyo

" Roger Green opens a life's journey into Feng Shui. He teaches with rampant enthusiasm & his intuitive knowledge appears to have no boundaries. The course is soul inspiring. An absolute gem! I would do it again." - Ian

"Roger is a powerhouse of wisdom! His teachings style is down-to-earth and easy to understand, as well as knowledgeable and entertaining. It's a great balance for learning from him whether you're a beginner or advanced student."

~Caroline Patrick, USA

"Roger Green brings a wealth of both deep and wide knowledge, presented in a very non-dogmatic, non-judgmental way. He requires that the students learn to operate/learn from their own innate intelligence."

- Keatin Holly

"Roger Green is a brilliant, inspiring teacher who has unique ability to deliver a profound Eastern philosophy to a western audience in a clear and understandable, useable format. I have experienced many teachers in this area; Roger is one of the best."

- TeRumi Leinow, CA

"Roger's clarity and naturalness in teachings, along with his politeness with his audience is always worth it." ~Nancy Bennett

Thank you for the privilege of working with you and your class. Our building in Berkeley presents so many challenges. It is a big complex mess. We were deeply impressed by the competence, creativity and undaunted wisdom which was expressed in each dimension of the work throughout the day. Your advice was sensible, grounded in practical business understanding, and, I believe once implemented, will be very beneficial. Your work as a teacher and advisor is simply outstanding. We will keep you abreast of changes at the building throughout the coming year.

-Many Thanks and Best Wishes, Bennett Johnston

Just quick notes to say a huge THANK YOU for the privilege of studying with you over this last year! It's been fun, demanding, challenging and rewarding. I also intend doing some of the further modules with you in 2005. I'm inspired and think that I've finally found that passionate path forwards. And the requests are already rolling in! So, thanks again and travel well.

- Di from Sydney

Thank you for everything - studying feng shui this past year has been the most rewarding trip - centering chi has brought all the most wonderful events to my door (Ming tang) Corey- Philly USA

I was able to attend Roger Green's Module 1 in San Francisco. During 2002, in New York City, I actually completed Modules 2, 3, and 4. I originally started with Module 2 having only read about Feng Shui. Because of Roger's concise and structured way of teaching, I never felt as though I was handicapped by not attending Module 1. In retrospect, I found it very stimulating and exciting to go back to "square one" with the knowledge I had acquired. I am looking forward to completing the course...Roger has so much information to give his students.

-Angela, New York, NY

"Roger Green is a brilliant, inspiring teacher who has unique ability to deliver a profound Eastern philosophy to a western audience in a clear and understandable, useable format. I have experienced many teachers in this area; Roger is one of the best."

-TeRumi Leinow, Woodacre, CA Food Energetics: June 2003

"After just half a day of studying with Roger Green I knew without a doubt that I had chosen the right teacher, the right school, and the right community of people to spend the year with on my way to becoming a feng shui practitioner. Roger's knowledgeable, articulate and well-grounded teaching style (along with years of teaching experience), the integrity of the program put together by the Golden Gate School of Feng Shui, and the interest, commitment, and background of the other students makes me feel completely confident that I am going to benefit immensely from this experience both personally and professionally. I am very grateful for having this opportunity so close to home."

--Catherine, Marin, CA

I just read through your information on Feng Shui in the southern hemisphere and wanted to thank you for the quality of your writing. I am moving house in Melbourne and I've been using the approach you describe for 2 years following a period of trying to live with the conventional method for the northern hemisphere. I found the difference to be enormous, but don't seem to rub shoulders with many people of like mind. Your explanation makes me feel comfortable with what I have done. Thanks for taking the time to read this message, and for your brilliant article on the website. With Dean Sky-Lucas (Melbourne Australia)

"Roger having stepped outside of The Box with earnest intention, knocking down the walls of Tradition is beyond remarkable. The Southern Hemisphere is now on the map of feng shui, thanks to this kind and brilliant man. I am honored to have been in the company of such a person.

Being in your class was one of those lifetime Great Experiences. Without a doubt, the level of education I expected to receive was surpassed in spades. It is my only hope that I can Walk the Talk of my Teachers as I move forward into my dream. I believe I was in the direct transmission of a Great One."

-Yasmin Caminiti

"Roger is a great teacher. But most of all, he is able to translate ancient principles into techniques we can actually use. His holistic and pragmatic approach to this knowledge has led me to start a thriving career as a Feng Shui practitioner. Understanding the reasons behind the techniques, from Daoist thought, to the practical ways that the ancient Chinese found for harnessing the power of heaven and earth has made the information live within me. After taking the course, I went to China and was able to actually discuss Feng Shui and Chinese Astrology with masters. They were impressed by my knowledge, and the way that I understand the cycles of energy that underlie these principles. More learning will come with time, but the basics of my Feng Shui knowledge, and the ability to use Feng Shui for helping clients had a great start with Roger's classes. If you are interested in this fascinating subject, and want to practice Feng Shui, please investigate one of his programs!"
